BELEN CHORAL CLUB GIVES CONCERT
Three Year Homestead Bill Pleases Large Number in Belen Country.

Belen, N. M., June 12.—The Belen Choral club presented its first concert in the Lutheran church Monday evening and the event was a distinct success in every sense of the word. The members of the society have been rehearsing for some time, and the production which was given Monday evening reflected credit upon each member.

"The May Queen," by William Sterndale Bennett, was the title of the composition rendered. The celebration of May day on the banks of the river Thames in England was well portrayed. The May Queen, in her lightness of heart, and forgetting her former lover, struck up a flirtation with the leader of the foresters during the May day celebration, much to the chagrin of the lover. The queen, appearing upon the scene in the nick of time, reproaches the principals in the flirtation, thus putting a stop to it and incidentally reconciling the lover and the May queen and bringing the day to a happy termination. The chorus work of the choral club was of a high class, showing careful training and persistence. Some of the best work of the evening was done in the choruses "Hail to the chief," "O melody sweet," "O melody sweet," and "With a laugh as we go round."

The solo parts were very well taken also. Mrs. L. C. Becker, soprano, rendered several difficult solos most satisfactorily.

Senator Mark Smith has secured an appropriation of $120,000 for a federal building at the port of Nogales.
